

Displayed on this site are limited edition books, pamphlets and other documents. They are presented here, not so much as their being for sale, but rather for their value as reference works for any person, or group of persons, who might find them to be of particular value or interest. There are no stocks of these documents available. All, however, exist in electronic format and are capable of being reproduced should it be desired.

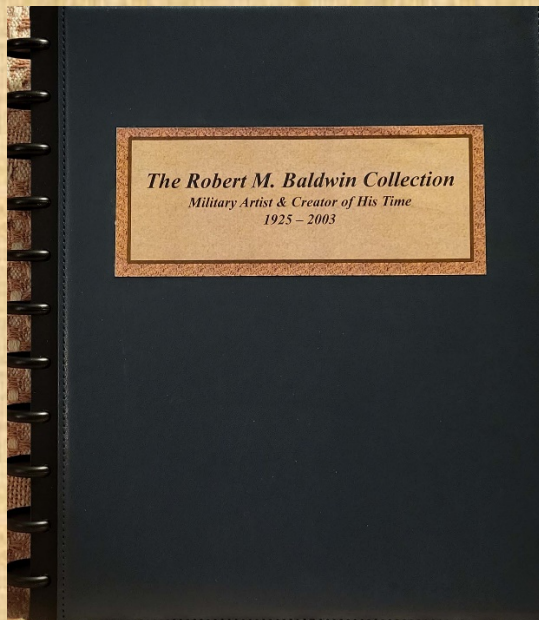

These are not 'for profit' books. They are considered to be 'reference books' and are essentially being made available 'free for download' in PDF format. If, however, anyone would like to obtain a physical, bound version, an individual book will be hand-assembled. The price reflects only the cost of materials, assembly and postage within the United States. Foreign postage will be quoted upon request.

The Baldwin Genealogy from 1500

(Click to view)

The first historical work by Mark Baldwin. Compiled in 1967, it is a direct-line listing of the male ancestors of Robert M. Baldwin, Sr. Most of the data was quoted from the C.C. Baldwin "Baldwin Genealogy" which was written in 1881. Mark Baldwin updated his work to include new data on his great-grandfather, Jesse L. Baldwin; his grandfather, William M. Baldwin; and his father, Robert M. Baldwin, Sr. The book is 85 pages long, 8.5"x11", originally composed on a typewriter and printed on a mimeograph machine in his father's art studio. This version is bound using the Staples ARC plastic ring binding system and was published by Mark Baldwin.
